PRICE OF PEACE TOO HIGH FOR THE TURKS

Salonica Committee Threatens Expulsion of All Italians.

ITALY WILL LIMIT THE WAR

Tripoli Occupied Without a Fight -Activities of the Italian Warships.

Special Cable Despatches to TRE SUN. SALONICA, Oct. 2.- The [Committee of Union and Progress has been in continuous session for twenty-four hours and it now seems certain that an order will be issued by the Young Turks for the expulsion of all Italians from Turkey in addition to the placing of a boycott on all Italian goods. The latter, owing to an order from the Turkish customs officials, have already been excluded from entry into Turkey. It is announced that the commander of the Turkish army corps at Adrianople has received orders to be prepared to absence has been denied to all officers. CONSTANTINOPLE, Oct. 2.-An official of the Turkish Government said to-night that the Porte was pessimistic, as it would seem that peace was to be purchased only at the impossible price of complete Turkish surrender. Opposed to Intervention. Special Cable Despatch to THE SUN.

VIENNA, Oct. 2.—The Italian Ambassa dor has been curtly informed by the Austrian authorities that should Italy attempt to land troops in Albania Austria will send warships to that coast and regard Italy's action as unfriendly.

It is reported that the Italian Ambassador at St. Petersburg has been warned by the Russian Government that the present conflict must be confined to Tripoli or otherwise Russia will take drastic action. The Italian press is reported as furious at the reported interference on the part of Russia and Austria and now gravely asserts that Prevesa was never bombarded, a statement which

STRIKE MOBS SEIZE TRAINS. Service on the Georgia and Florida Paralyzed for Three Days.

AUGUSTA, Ga., Oct. 2 .- A state of anarchy exists along the line of the Georgia and Florida Railroad owing to the strike of the firemen, which was declared last week. General Manager Turner admits that not a train has got through on the system since last Saturday, and he declares that under present conditions there is little hope of resuming service.

The white firemen went out first because the road refused to increase wages and the negro firemen struck in sympathy. From the beginning the strike has been marked by violence, which has grown each day.

The burning of a trestle 300 yards long near Douglas on Sunday was followed to-day by the capture of two passenger trains by armed mobs. With their guns these mobs forced the engineers to take the trains back to Douglas, which is a division point, and there sidetrack them.

The engineers and other train employees were roughly handled by the mobs and were threatened with death if they tried again to take out trains.

An alarming feature of the situation is that many people along the line are in sympathy with the strikers and are siding in tying up traffic. The mobs which ships, two cruisers and two tor pedo boat held up the trains to-day were composed destroyers. All, it is said, are now safe of whites and negroes. The negroes are more violent than the whites and declare that no trains shall run until the road grants the demands of the negro fire-

The passengers on the trains held up were in a state of terror when the trains were forced back to-day. General Manager Turner says the road is getting no protection from the authorities along the line, who are afraid of the mobs.

The Georgia and Florida operates several hundred miles of road, its southern terminus being Madison, Fla. It is controlled by John Skelton Williams of Richwho is prominent in the agement of the Seaboard Air Line.

Vice-President Tent of the Brotherhood of Firemen says it is a fact that there is did not reach the town. Prior to the a complete tieup and that people bombardment the Italians at Prevesa along the line will not let non-union men

INVESTIGATING STEPHENSON Senate Committee Decides to Go Into

Every Phase of Election. MILWAUKEE, Oct. 2.-Investigation of the election of United States Senator Isaac was to have filled Dixon's engagement Stephenson was begun to-day by a Sen- at the Interstate Fair in Spokane, but ate committee which will delve into every phase of the election from the primary to the final breaking of the deadlock.

This was decided to-day just before Senator Stephenson himself took the stand, when the committee refused to limit the investigation to the mere taking of the separate session ballot in 1909, when Stephenson had a clear majority in the lower house and a majority of those voting in the upper house, though the La Follette Senators voted "present." Former Congressman Littlefield, for Mr. Stephenson, said that this constituted an

The committee also decided to invite the State of Wisconsin to be represented by counsel to question the witnesses, as the State appears in the proceedings as the will return each to her home district and will return each to her home district and prosecutor. Two witnesses were heard to-day. Senator Stephenson and E. A. Edmonds, his campaign manager and former chairman of the State Republican committee.

FLIER DIXON FALLS TO DEATH

BOY WHO TOPPED THE ROCKIES CAUGHT IN DOWN CURRENT.

Made Ascent in Gusty Wind and Soon War Seen to Be in Trouble-Machine Tilted, but Would Have Been Righted

SPOKANE, Wash., Oct. 2 .- Cromwell Dixon, the aviator who made the first! crossing of the Rocky Mountains in an aeroplane, was killed here to-day.

His machine was caught in a vertical air current and dropped. Dixon almost righted it when he was within 100 feet of the ground, but did not have time to straighten out before he struck.

Ten thousand persons, here for the Interstate Fair, saw him fall, and many down.

Dixon, who was working for the Curtiss Exhibition Company, was under contract to do three flights a day for the amusement of the crowds at the fair. He started to go into the air at about 3 o'clock for his first flight but his engine balked. He tinkered at it and at last Found Guilty of Immorality by a Jury of got it into shape.

As soon as he left the field it was clear that he was having trouble with air curassure the Czar's Government of free rents. The wind came in gusts and the little biplane tilted crazily in the treachertask and climbed well into the sky.

The crowd thought he was merely doing tricks with the machine and cheered his cleverness. The people had no apprehension that things were wrong until the bialmost thrown from his seat and was only kept in it by his restraining straps.

Dixon worked hard to get back control. For a moment, when he was not much above the level of the fair flagpole, the spectators thought that he was going to save himself. But another gust struck him and his machine dropped.

Dixon himself knew that there was no hope. Harry Ormon, a mechanic attached to the Curtiss company, was standing on the field near where he landed Dixon must have seen him and fearing that Ormon was in the way shouted 'Here I go! Here I go!"

Ormon dodged and the machine dropped in a heap within three steps of where he had been standing. He ran to help Dixon. There was little that could be done. Many bones were broken and his skull was fractured. He was taken to the emergency hospital, where he died an hour after he fell. His body will probably be sent to New York, where his mother lives. It was said here to-night that probably there will be legislation in Northwestern States again exhibition flying. There have been many accidents to aviators at fairs and the people are stirred be Cromwell Dixon was 19 years old. He was the first aviator to fly over the Rocky Mountains, besides being the youngest licensed aviator in this country. He re ceived his license from the Aero Club of America on August 2 of this year.

He was born in Columbus, Ohio. He once saw Capt. Baldwin fly in a dirigible balloon at the world's fair in St. Louis. The boy went home and built a balloon for himself which was thirty feet long and eleven feet in diameter. Lacking an engine, young Dixon put in a bicycle pedal arrangement attached to a chain by which he ran the propeller. With this machine he made many flights. On one occasion he flew from St. Louis across th Mississippi River into Illinois and back again, a distance of thirteen miles. Later on he attached a motor to his balloon and became very proficient in running dirigibles. Last year he went to Waltham, Mass and experimented with the Metz Company, aeroplane makers. He flew in meet that was held in that town. At the last of August of this year he came to Mineola and wanted to join Capt. Baldwin's school, but the Captain didn't have any more planes and sent him to Glenn Curtiss. The latter took him in, and after flying around Nassau Boulevard for several weeks Dixon went on the road for the Curtiss Company, making flights His greatest flight was made last Saturday, when he soared over the Rockies It was his last flight at the Montana State a purse of $10,000 made up by Louis W Hill, John Ringling, Lewis Penwell and the State Fair.

In this flight he covered more than fifty miles and was gone from the fair grounds an hour and fifty minutes. He carried a letter which was handed to him by Gov. Morris to "The citizens of Blessburg, kindness of Cromwell Dixon, Curtiss aeroplane service." Dixon delivered this letter at Blessburg and then returned.

Dixon's mother and sister are living at 635 W. 185th st., in this city The sister is a vaudeville actress and the nior school of aeronatics in this city He invented a mile a minute motorcycle and a tent for housing dirigible balloons picycle when he was 15 years old he estab lished a record for that time in carrying the American flag 2,000 feet up in the air.

MORSE GIVES UP FIGHT. Withdraws Appeal and Will Stay in At-

ATLANTA, Oct. 2.-Charles W. Morse has ceased his fight for liberty, for the present at least. To-morrow his attorneys will go before the United States Circuit Court and ask permission to withdraw the appeal they made last June from the decision of Judge Newman of the Had the Altitude Been Greater. United States Court without prejudice to their client.

This means that Morse will be able to renew the appeal at any time he should elect to do so. It is generally believed, however, that he recognizes he has no chance for liberty at present and willing to bide his time.

His attorneys contend that he was overentenced by five years; that in the statutes under which he was convicted ten years was the maximum, whereas he got

Judge Newman ruled that even if the New York court was in error in adding years, the proper time to settle this point would be at the expiration of the time at which under a ten year sentence he would be free. Within the next year or so Morse would

POLICEMAN TOLD THE TRUTH. So Waldo and Schmittberger After Inquiry Went Right On.

Police Commissioner Waldo and Chief Inspector Max Schmittberger were out early on Sunday morning looking for policemen who might not be on post. At I wenty-seventh street and Second avenue he stationary post was unoccupied. So the pair went into a saloon on the corner to look for and trap a delinquent. They didn't find him. The hour was 2:30 A. M. One of them ordered a whiskey.

Half an hour later they came out and found Policeman Oppenheimer of the East Thirty-fifth street station on the stationary post. They asked him where he had been and he said he had left his post to chase three men who had been Twenty-seventh street. He chased them nto the hands of Policeman Ludwig of the East Twenty-second street station. They dropped a jimmy on the way. Oppenheimer's story was true, so Schmittberger told him to enter it in his

DECLARATION IN ASTOR SUIT. and his wife is taxed on $200,000, and Mrs. Heirs of Man Killed by Electric Current Want $30,000.

NEWPORT, Oct. 2 -The declaration and claim for a jury trial was filed in the Superior Court here to-day in the suit for $30,000 damages against Col. John Jacob Astor by Mrs. Bridget McCrohan and her in town. The hotels, and there were son and daughter. The notice of this suit was served on Col. Astor last month in their lobbies, for the town of Austin on the morning of his wedding day.

The declaration says that on July 1, 1910. Eugene P. McCrohan was employed by the Providence Telephone Company to install telephones and make connections at the summer home of Col. Astor. It is claimed that he was so engaged at the invitation of Col. Astor, whose duty it was to exercise reasonable care to provide a safe and suitable place for him to work in. It is alleged that Col. Astor did not use reasonable care, that an eletric switch, metals, wires and connections through which a high voltage of electric current ran was negligently allowed to be exposed insufficiently insulated and very dangerous. It is therefore alleged that Eugene McCrohan while in the exercise of his duties attempting to make telephone connections received a violent shock from which he died.

ON TRIAL FOR BURNING NEGRO. One of Nine Alleged Coatesville Mob Leaders Charged with Murder.

WESTCHESTER, Pa., Oct. 2.-Chester Bostic, one of the boys charged with murder for participating in the burning of Zack Walker in Coatesville, was released at the convening of court this morning. He will next appear in behalf of the Commonwealth as a witness in the case. He has turned State's evidence and it is expected that his testimony will go a long way toward convicting others who are held on the same charge.

The matter of Bostic having been disposed of Joseph Swartz, who is accused of being one of the nine leaders of the mob which burned Walker, was placed in the prisoners' box and the work of obtaining jury began. Up to noon in had been chosen from thirty-eight called. At 3:30 the jury was completed.

opened for the Commonwealth. He recited the details of the crime and defined the law. County Surveyor Nathan Rambo, first witness, showed with charts the prominent points in the tragedy with distances marked. Following the testimony of Surveyor Rambo court adjourned until to-morrow.

NURSE KILLED BY ACID? One Description of Miss Connors's Death Ignores Heart Failure.

The body of Miss May Connors, superising nurse at the Post-Graduate Hospital, who died in the hospital on Sunday morning from the effects of carbolic acid, was shipped yesterday to Miss Connors's mother, Mrs. Ellen Connors, in Santa Fé, N. M.

Varying opinions were given as to the manner of Miss Connors's death. As the story appeared on a slip signed by Dr. Lippincott of the hospital and sent to the Coroner's office Miss Connors was passing from one room to another carrying a tray upon which were pans of instruments and a bottle of carbolic acid. She slipped and fell, the bottle broke, and the acid splashed over her face and chest. The splashed over her face and chest. The slip stated that the shock caused by the severe burns had probably affected Miss Connors's heart and that she had died at

Nurses as Waitresses Serve Food to the Hungry-Freaks of Torrent's Power.

AUSTIN, Pa., Oct. 2.—The last estimate o-night indicates that not more than 100 persons went down under the flood on Saturday. To-day two census enumerators went through the town from one end to the other and they learned of just eighty-five persons who were not accounted for State Health Commissioner Dixon based is estimate upon the visits of these officials to the houses of eighty-four families

In addition to the missing ones, though t is certain that there were stranger three of them, always had drummers was a good buying centre. Saturday was market day too and the sides of Main street were lined with wagons. How many of these outsiders are under the tangled heap that marks the site of Main street cannot be told. The town had a very different look to-day from ite gray depression of yesterday. The sun shone down upon the broken and torn remnants and cheered the workers upon the clearage. The list of dead according to the figures of Dr. Simmons includes twenty-three identified and three whose names have not yet been learned. In one house nine

Italians perished together. In another thirteen Polaks, members of two families of which the heads were mill employees. were drowned. Something like organization came out of the energetic but confused efforts of Sunday. A steam log roller grappled at the high pile of splintered boards heaped in front of the Bank of Austin. The nurses, who have established a free commissary for the destitute and workmen and constabulary, had the Odd Felows Hall jammed full of a variety of supplies. More than 2,000 persons were fed to-day across the counters of the nurses, who had turned themselves into waitresses, and this detail included the long line that received canned goods at one of the side doors. In the lodge rooms upstairs sat Dr. Dixon with his many assistants planning and revising the campaign for carin for the homeless and preventing an outbreak of disease. It is the subject of Deputy Attorney-General Cunningham water supply with which the authorities have concerned themselves to-day. The town received its drinking water from number of springs and wells upon the hillsides above. Dr. Dixon has posted notices through Austin warning the survivors not to use this water. The orps of engineers under State Sanitary Engineer F. Herbert Snow has be tracing the supply of every house left standing. It is feared that the contamination of the flood waters may bring fresh disaster to the wrecked town. A house across from the authorities headquarters has been made into a morgue and all day Dr. R. H. Simmons has b there receiving the bodies and checking off their identification as they came in Justice of the Peace M. N. Johnson has sat there to take the sworn statements of relatives and to sign the burial cer-

This afternoon the carriers of the rough death litters came in with a baby's body. It was the 11-months-old daughter physicians, who on Sunday found his wife's body in the ruins of their house When the physician went to the morgue to make the positive identification of wife's body he was certain at first that the disfigured face was not that of his wife. Then he lifted up her hands and saw a ring that he had given to her. Today the physician took his wife's body away for burial, so he wasn't there when he alleges was formed to thrust him into the baby's body was found. He didn't see, as did the nurses and doctors who unwrapped the little sheet, that a small red apple dropped from the baby's fingers and rolled across the floor. To-day for the first time the con stabulary found that it had to deal with HAVANA, Oct. 2.—Gen. Bernardo Reyes vandals who poked among the ruins where a strict guard was not in force Eight arrests were made and the prisoner were arraigned to-night before Justice Johnson. They had to be locked up in

The result of these cases of larceny is that to-night the cavalry police have mounted their ponies and have established patrol routes over the whole area where the wreckage lies. No one is allowed to cross over the valley without an escort and the orders are to drive every one out, even the men and women who had houses in the desolate tract, and to ride after and capture any one who doesn't heed the first warning. There seems to be no disposition on the part of any of the authorities to institute an inquiry into the causes that led up to the smash in the dam. Potte. county is without a Coroner. The County Commissioners, who have the power to give this office, have sent representatives to look over the waste and they have notified the State authorities that they see no occasion for any activity other than the perfunctory duty of signing the death certificates, which is being done by Justice Johnson. Those who are familiar with the county
